IBHRE at Heart Rhythm 2019

Are you joining us in San Francisco for Heart Rhythm 2019? Be sure to visit the IBHRE Lounge for special events, including IBHRE’s Celebration of Excellence to acknowledge current subject matter experts who have helped develop IBHRE’s certification exams as well as the new Cardiac Device Education and Self-Assessment Course (CDESA). Additional activities in the lounge include:

- Free giveaways
- Light refreshments
- Networking opportunities
- Exclusive preview of CDESA on Thursday, May 9 from 11:00 AM - 12:00 PM

Group Discounts for CDESA Available!
Are you considering ordering this online course for your staff? For group discount information, contact Tracy Lofty, IBHRE’s Executive Director, at tlofty@hrsonline.org. In the meantime, be sure to watch the course demo.

Verification of Continuing Certification

Are you due to submit your Verification of Continuing Education (VCE) in 2019? If yes, don’t wait until the end of the year! Submit early to make sure you are listed in IBHRE’s online directory as being in compliance with IBHRE’s certification policies.

If you are attending Heart Rhythm 2019, stop by the IBHRE Lounge on Thursday, May 9 from 9:00 AM to 10:00 AM to receive a discount code for a reduced VCE registration fee.

Submission of a minimum of 45 contact hours of continuing education is still required no later than December 1, 2019, during the fifth year of your certification. Certified professionals may complete any combination of 45 contact hours from the following categories of applicable VCE activities:
• Continuing Medical Education (CME) or Continuing Education (CE)
• IBHRE Committee Service
• Lecture/Presentation
• Publications
• College or University Credit
• Industry Training
• Industry Sponsored Education Presentation

Read IBHRE's Verification of Continuing Education Credits and Recertification Policy to obtain more details.
